Dream Seats Project

Free membership program for elementary to high school students to experience classical music concerts at reasonable prices

Dream Seats is a membership program in which we offer affordably-priced tickets of regular concerts by orchestras and masterpiece-themed concerts held across the nation, to parents and children from elementary to high school. (Membership registration is free of charge.) The project provides children with the opportunities to enjoy standard-style concerts carefully selected from a wide array of genres, not those designed for children but those they can enjoy with adults.
